1 The United States files, under Crim. L.R. 8-1, this Notice of Related Case for In re: 2 Capacitors Antitrust Litigation, No. 14-CV-03264-JD, and United States v. NEC TOKIN Corp., 3 No. CR 15-0426-RS. In the civil matter, In re: Capacitors Antitrust Litigation, plaintiffs allege, 4 in part, that various manufacturers of electrolytic capacitors engaged in anticompetitive conduct 5 in violation of 15 U.S.C. § 1. In the criminal matter, United States v. NEC TOKIN Corp., NEC TOKIN is charged with violating 15 U.S.C. § 1, due to its participation in a conspiracy to fix 6 7 prices and rig bids of electrolytic capacitors. These two cases should be related because they 8 involve the same anticompetitive electrolytic capacitors conspiracy, NEC TOKIN is a defendant 9 in both cases, and there is a substantial overlap in the alleged events and transactions. 10 Assignment of these two cases to the same judge will conserve judicial resources and promote an 11 efficient determination of the action. 12 13 14 DATED: September 2, 2015 Respectfully submitted, 15 /s/ Jacklin Chou Lem 16 Jacklin Chou Lem Trial Attorney 17 United States Department of Justice 18 Antitrust Division 19 20 21 22 23 24 25 26 27 28
